From the Editor...

Hello everyone,

Greetings to you all at this very hectic time. Advent is the season of preparation and expectation, and we are all certainly busy doing that! Blessings to you as you plan and prepare and play a multitude of rehearsals, worship services and concerts. "This too shall pass." And then a new year begins.

There have been very little submissions for inclusion in the newsletter, so this month's listings are very short. Remember, if you would like something included in the newsletter or on the AGO website (<http://tristateago.org/>) and Google calendar (<https://www.google.com/calendar/embed?src=tri.statetrompette%40gmail.com&ctz=America/Denver>), get it to me by the 25th of the month. Please included ALL details (date, time, location with address and city, cost, contact information, website, etc).

SURVEYMONKEY REQUEST

If you have not yet taken the 30-second survey of the typical honorarium paid for weddings and funerals in our area, would you please do so now? Just click the link below and follow the directions. No name, personal information, or email address will be asked for, and nothing collected. One response per computer allowed. To date, only TWO people of have taken the survey... and one of them was ME. THANKS FOR HELPING!

GREELEY CHORALE CONCERT: WES HAEL! AND HAPPY HOLIDAYS

UNION COLONY CIVIC CENTER, 10th Avenue, Greeley, CO, 80631

Dr. Galen Darrough, director

Do you remember the Greeley Chorale Madrigal Feaste? For 17 years the Chorale's imaginative and entertaining re-creation of an English holiday celebration was a "must do" of the Northern Colorado holiday season. For this concert, we pay homage to the Madrigal with a number of pieces from that musical style and period, as well as a group of Madrigal singers, in full costume! You'll also hear favorites of the holiday season, as well as a brass ensemble led by Northern Colorado Trumpetmaster Bill Pfund. You won't want to miss this one-of-a-kind holiday concert!
